

BIRD BOX

BLINDFOLD CHALLENGE

£30pp - 2 hour session - Suitable for groups of 6-40 people

The Bird Box Blindfold Challenge is our brand new Team Building package, inspired by the popular Netflix thriller, Bird Box. Participants will be required to take on a range of physical, mental and skill challenges, whilst having their sense of sight blocked by a blindfold. Groups will have to be prepared to use all of their other senses, as well as their intuition and wit to be able to complete the challenges.

Who's it for?

This package is ideal for corporate away days, hen and stag groups, youth groups or any other team who wants to improve their leadership, communication and teamwork skills.

What's involved

The package consists of a range of different challenges, all designed to foster and improve team cohesion and developing the ability to face challenges together in adverse situations, in this case, with no sense of sight. Clear and precise communication will be key in the team trying to overcome the challenges. With your sense of sight removed, all other senses will be heightened and it's up to each group to use these wisely to overcome the obstacles as they arise.

The Bird Box Blindfold Challenge will take place in our vast Jungle grounds, with challenges laid out in a consecutive fashion as you go around the course. This unique team building package can be done as one group, or it can be altered to include a competitive element, with 2 or more teams competing against each other.
