You gotta be to try this!

Tick this off your Bucket List and book your Zorbing adventure today!

Hydro Zorbing is an invigorating mix between a water chute and a rollercoaster which allows participants to sail, unharnessed, down the 300m hill accompanied by 10 gallons of water (seasonal activity for Spring and Summer).

If you prefer a drier adventure then we'd suggest Harness Zorbing would be more your thing.

BOUNCING, FLIPPING, BUMPING + CRASHING!

Body Zorbing / Football is a unique craze in which participants encase themselves inside an inflatable zorb ball covering their entire upper body leaving their legs free to run about.

You'll never have as much fun running and bouncing, flipping, bumping and crashing into each other chasing a football. Usually the football becomes more of a side line as participants enjoy the act of chasing and bouncing into each other more!

IT'S MORE THAN JUST PAINTBALL!

If Paintball's your thing, then this is home.

There is nowhere else in Ireland that delivers such a range of zones, the scope of games, or the same rush of adrenaline.

Get suited and booted in our overalls and mask. Put together a battle pack of smoke grenades and paintballs, and prepare yourselves for battle. Groups will be split into teams and pitted against each other to see who reigns victorious.

Throughout the different zones, the kind of places you see in war movies, you will take part in a variety of games, such as Signal Tower, The Fortress, Trenches and The Swamp amongst others.

Whatever the situation and type of player, we here at The Jungle offer a variety of Paintball Packages perfect for Team Building, Stag & Hen Parties, Birthday Parties, Corporate Events or for settling scores with a bunch of friends.

A paintball player in a forest, wearing a dark protective suit and a visor, is aiming a paintball gun from a wooden bunker.
